SYRACUSE GREETS HARRISON.

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS CHEER THE CANDIDATE.

He Is Invited to the Democratic County Convention and Arouses Genuine Enthusiasm-Afterward He Addresses a Large Mass Meeting in Albambra Hall.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 5.-Congressman Francis Burton Harrison, Democratic and (itizens' candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, opened the Onondaga county campaign to-night with a whoop. The Onondaga Democratic convention was held today. It began with some factional dif-These differences, which were ferences. pretty well dissipated by the time the nom-inations were made, vanished and were folowed by red hot unanimity when Harrison appeared and gave to the delegates a brief message of encouragement and inspiration With Edward M. Shepard and former Gov. James K. Campbell of Ohio, Mr. Harrison spoke to a multitude of Democrats and Odell-weary Republicans at the great Alhambra Hall. The reception which came to Mr. Harrison on his appearance in the convention and at the night meeting was a surprise, even to those who know the profound dissatisfaction of Syracuse citizens of every party with the present administration of the State.

Onondaga Republicans have felt the Governor-Chairman's mailed hand. The county is one always counted on for a Republican majority of 6,000, no matter what happens. The Governor-Chairman has felt safe in concentrating all the emoluments and honors of office in the hands of his personal representatives here and has altogether ignored the men who have done the real work which has in the past produced that 6,000 majority.

Result: The Democratic managers here have no great confidence in lowering the customary majority for the Republican national ticket, but they gleefully and with the utmost confidence predict that Higgins will run from 2,000 to 2,500 behind Mr. Roosevelt. It would be a violation of confidence to print the names of the prominent and important Republicans, city officeholders among them, who are working for Herrick and Harrison. But there are many, very many.

When Congressman Harrison reached the Yates Hotel this afternoon, he was informed that the county convention was in session and would like to have him pay it a visit. E. P. Dovle and L. E. Minahan escorted Mr. Harrison to the convention. The chairman announced that Mr. Harrison was at the door, and the delegates rose up and began to cheer. In the midst of it Mr. Doyle and Mr. Minahan came in with the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. The cheers and the tumult of those who wanted to get at Mr. Harrison and carry him down the aisle on their shoulders scared Mr. Doyle so that he turned and made modestly for the rear. Mr. Minahan had more confidence and piloted Mr. Harrison through the tumult.

Mr. Harrison, when he was able to make himself heard, announced that he now understood what was meant by the rampant Democracy of Onondaga. He had been made acquainted, he said, with the exceptional quality of the nominations of the convention. A good and necessary work had thus been well begun. There was no telling how far the corrupt conditions so notorious in the higher offices of the State had permeated the rest of the State administration. Democracy could give no higher tion. Democracy could give no higher ge than the nomination of such candi-as sat on the platform about him. He begged them to enter the fight with energy and with the safe confidence that New York State is honest at heart and will throw off dishonesty as though it were a shoddy garment.

The delegates rose and cheered again and again. They then came to the front and shook hands with Mr. Harrison, and almost every man had a little chat with him. The practical effect of this incident was shown when to a man the delegates. was shown when, to a man, the delegates gave up their intention of going home this evening and stayed over to hear Mr. Harrison speak to-night.

The rest of the afternoon Mr. Harrison spent in his room at the Yates. He met many Republicans, who came to seek him Who they were it would not be proper to tell. They frankly declared that they were earnest supporters of President Roosevelt and could not be weaned from that allegiance. But they wanted to know something of the man who had second place on the anti-Odell ticket.

They wanted to know how he would stand toward the State fair. Syracuse is wedded to its fair. Former Lieut. Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff is about the most popular man in Syracuse because of the help he gave to the fair as its president while he was Lieutenant-Governor. If Syracuse Republicans were sore with Odell for no other reason they would be sore for what they call "the dirty deal" Mr. Woodruff got at the Governor-Chairman's hands. Mr. Harrison heard their sentiments with interest. Later he told the Alhambra audience what he thought.

It had been planned to have a great procession before the mass meeting, but a shower starting in at dark caused the parade to be abandoned. But the Alhambra. They wanted to know how he would stand keep the crowd out of the Alhambra. Democrats and their allies began to shout and cheer when the band outside heralded the arrival of the candidate's car-riage. They kept it up until Mr. Harrison, Mr. Shepard and Gov. Campbell entered he hall. Then they doubled and tripled he racket and the committeemen and vicepresidents and secretaries on the platform did a war dance. The Syracuse University Democratic Club, which has in its ranks many young men who will vote for the first many young men who will vote for the first time this fall, started all manner of organized cheering. County Chairman John J. Cummins managed to get the meeting into the hands of the presiding officer, August Falker, who, amid long interruptions of noisy enthusiasm, introduced Mr. Harrison. The Congressman said, in part:

The Congressman said, in part:

The Congressman said, in part:

"It is a great honor to appear to-night before a Syracuse audience in this historic hall. It is an honor to appear before the fellow citizens of the Hon. William Muench, our candidate for State Treasurer. [Cheers.] It is a pleasure to know that in this great audience we have the pleasure of welcoming many Republicans. [Cheers.] We appreciate and sympathize with the indignation and rage on the part of the We appreciate and sympathize with the indignation and rage on the part of the Republicans of this city on account of the insulting and outrageous treatment of the president of your State Fair Association, that excellent, capable and efficient man, former Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff. [Cheers.] Our convention celebrated no such hu-miliation of a loyal and tried party worker. Our candidates were not rammed down the throats of unwilling delegates. We came out of Saratoga, rejoicing together in our strength, not writhing under the lash of a pitless master. [Cheers and prolonged applause.]

Mr. Harrison appeals to the young men

Institute of application of the young men of the State for appreciation of the confidence in young men shown by the State Democracy in nominating two young men under 31 years. He believed that most applications of the confidence of the confidence under 31 years. He believed that most yoing men were fighters. There was only one side to fight on, his side, with any satisfaction—the side of honesty.

'I believe I am something of a fighter myself. [Applause.] I attribute the quality to the fact that I had an Irish grandmother. !Applause, laughter and cheers.]

Mr. Harrison dwelt for some time on national issues, deprecating what he described as the Republican habit of claiming all the virtue in the world in the hope that some one will believe they possess enough to cover a potato patch. Returning to State issues, he said:

"I feel a certain reticence in speak-

"I feel a certain reticence in speaking in a personal way of the present Republican administration in the State. As a candidate for office, I am circumscribed. Our State platform says what our convention felt. Every Democrat and every honest Republican should memorize it

I am as well aware as you that the name—the name, I say, at the head of the Republican ticket, is not the name of the head of the administration. But I also know, as you know, that through that name on the ticket, the head of the administration seeks to perpetuate the régime which he has established at Albany. That's what that ticket is for. [Applause and cheers.]

"To you the Democracy of New York "To you the Democracy of New York offers a candidate who will stand as a watch tower against the raids of the hordes of robbers. Once again, as when the canal ring was intrenched at Albany, not so many years ago, there is a man of the type of Samuel J. Tilden to lead the battle against it. Such a man is D. Cady Herrick. (Cheers and applause and more cheers.)

it. Such a man is D. Cady Herrick. (Cheers and applause and more cheers.)

"There are two things I desire to say to you on my own behalf. It has been the custom to make the Lieutenant-Governor president of the State Fair Association. There is nothing, in case I am elected, which will please me more than to have that custom followed. [Cheers.] I believe in the State fair. [Applause.] I advocate a great State fair, adequate to the industrial and agricultural importance of the State. [Cheers.] I pledge myself, if elected, to do all in my power to advance the interests of that great institution.

"Second—Of the duties, belonging to the Lieutenant-Governor none will be more

Lieutenant-Governor none will be more important than that of his membership in the Canal Board. I pledge myself, not only to be unceasingly diligent to protect the money of the taxpayers, but to do more the money of the taxpayers, but to do more —to seek out those who have done wrong or who seek to do wrong, and to see to it that they are punished unsparingly." [Cheers.]
—All through Mr. Harrison's speech the audience warmed up more and more. His reference to the fair and Mr. Woodruff brought out cheers on top of cheers, and when he closed it was a full two minutes before Mr. Faller could present Mr. Shengrd when he closed it was a full two minutes before Mr. Falker could present Mr. Shepard. Mr. Shepard congratulated the audience on having heard and seen Mr. Harrison.

"You have seen," he said, "his honesty, cleanness, determination and courage. All these are qualities which are now required to the present the same proper before [Cheers]. We at Albany, as never before. [Cheers]. We are fortunate in this candidate. [Cheers and shouts of "You're right"]. We need also, as never before, the keen political wisdom and experience, the veteran steadiness, the unswerving determination and the clear statesmanship which are characteristic of the Hon. D. Cady Herrick. [Cheers].

Cheers!.
The rest of the remarks of Mr. Shepard and of Gov. Campbell were devoted to

$8 "EDISON VITALIZERS."

One That Lawyer Dyer Bought Was Numbered 200,000.

The offices of the Thomas A. Edison, Jr., Chemical Company, at 14 Stone street, were open for business as usual yesterday, but the trade in "magno-electric vitalizers" didn't appear to be rushing. A young woman was in charge of the front W. Newton Bennington, who admits that he's chief stockholder in the concern and who is the lessee for this year of August Belmont's great mare Beldame, was at his real estate office at 52 Broadway. He reiterated that the company would continue to sell "vitalizers," in spite of the fraud order. Mr. Bennington also in-timated that he might conclude to take an appeal from the order of the Acting Postaster-General.

Frank L. Dyer of Dyer & Dyer, attorneys for Thomas A. Edison, Sr., was asked yes-many of the vitalizers do you imagine the company sold? "I cannot give any very definite informa-tion about that, but I know this: I sent a man over to the office to buy one and it bore the number 200,000. I do not believe sold any such number as that, because the company was organized only about a year and a half ago, but I have reason to believe they sold at least 30,000. At ing price, the company, on the 30,000 esti-mate, cleared $180,000."

Among the literature sent out by the

Among the literature sent out by the company to advertise the vitalizer was a paper called the Magnet. Two articles in the Magnet had these headings: "Japan Wants Vitalizers for Troops in the Field" and "Public Meeting Called to Discuss the Edison Vitalizer." The Magnet was printed at the office of the Bayside Review at Bath Beach, near Mr. Bennington's home. The editor of the Bayside Review is named Stratton. Stratton at one time had relations with a man named Stripe, who was tions with a man named Stripe, who was trying to float soap company stock. To boom the soap stock Stripe had a paper. Bennington admitted on Monday that he bought Stripe's printing plant and got Stratton to print a paper for him down

GAVE WARNING OF SUICIDE. Boy and Hotel Clerk Argued While Popp Shot Himself Twice.

Charles L. Popp, a clerk, 28 years old, of 54 East Eighty-ninth street shot himself twice yesterday at the Harlem Central Hotel, 125th street and Park avenue, and died about 10 o'clock last night at the Harlem Hospital.

When he registered he took his dress When he registered he took ms upper suit case upstairs and said he would take a walk before retiring. He started west on 125th street, and met fourteen-year-old Clarence Hubbell of 14 West 125th street. He asked the boy what time it was, saying that he wanted to catch a train. The boy thought that Popp was drunk and told him to take his train in the morning.

Popp asked Hubbell to help him to his room, and when they got up stairs he offered the boy a bill, which the boy refused. Hubbell said that Popp then opened his dress suit case and took out a revolver, saying:

"I don't want to live any longer, young man, and I am going to take a trip to a land where my troubles will be at an end."
Hubbell ran down stairs and told Clerk John Alderberger that a man upstairs was going to kill himself and that he had better haves for a policeman. The clerk told the hurry for a policeman. The clerk told the boy to go back to the man's room and try to get the revolver away from him. While the two were discussing the situation they ard the two shots fired.

heard the two shots fired.

Popp's effects were taken to the East 126th street police station. Four letters, all sealed, two of them addressed to Mrs. Charles L. Popp, 54 East Eighty-ninth street, one to C. E. Popp and the other to J. W. Popp, 392 Canal street, were found. In his pocket was a pawnticket for a ring pawned yesterday in Harlem for $15, and a field card at the Morris Park racetrack.

The man's wife and her father went to the hospital last night. Mrs. Popp told the man's wife and her lather went to the hospital last night. Mrs. Popp told the police that she did not know why her husband tried to kill himself. She refused to disclose the contents of the letters to

The Weather.

The pressure remained high in the Atlantic States. where the weather continued fair. There was a storm of slight intensity over the Lake regions, where it was cloudy and showery. It was also showery in the Central States and the Northwest. because cooler weather was forced south and east-ward from Montana and the Dakotas, where the centre of high pressure was, and the temperature was from 6 degrees above to 4 degrees below freezing point; the lowest was 28 degrees at Havre, Mon. 1; was cooler in all the Central States and warmer in the Atlanti: States.

In this city the day was fair and slightly warmer;
wind, fresh southerly; average humidity, 63 per cent.; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M., 30.13; 3 P. M., 30.09.

The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the thermometer, is shown in the annexed

table: 1904, 1903, 1904, 1903, 1904, 1903, 1904, 1903, 12 M. 67* 73* 9 P. M. 66* 70* 12 M. 69* 75* 12 Mid. 64* 67* The highest temperature, 69*, at 3 P. M. WASHINGTON PORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO-MORBOW For New England, eastern New York, eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, foir and colder to-day and to-morrow; brisk to high northwest

For Maryland, the District of Columbia and Virginia, showers in early morning, followed by fair and colder to day; fair to-morrow; fresh to northwest winds. For western New York and western Pennsylvania, fair and cooler to-day; fair to morrow; diminishing

2000 MANHATTAN HANDSHAKES

JUDGE PARKER WON THE CHAM-PIONSHIP EASILY.

A Jest for Chas. F. Murphy-Justice Herrick Indicates a Design to Annex Jerome for the Stumping Tour of the State-Letter From Candidate Davis.

Judge Parker shook more than 2,000 hands at the reception given to him at the Manhattan Club last night. Justice Herrick shared honors with Judge Parker. but he didn't shake quite so many hands, because when it neared the two thousand mark he got a little tired and felt the need of a cigar to recuperate on.

Judge Parker kept bravely on until the finish and wound up by shaking the hands of some of the club servants. All the others who had started in to handshake with him had dropped out long before this, and the Judge carried off the honors. The presence of the two candidates led to a great gathering of Democrats at the club There were Democrats of all sizes and stripes. Several times in the crush Charles F. Murphy came almost face to face with Senator McCarren and as they finally passed the Judge they were only a few handshakes apart. At one time it took any one in the crowd tightly wedged in between the wall of the room and the roped off centre five apart.

minutes to pass a given point on the march toward the Judge.

Henry G. Davis, candidate for Vice-President, had been invited by the club to enter the handshaking contest, but he sent this letter declining:

I regret exceedingly my inability to be present at the reception to be given by the Manhattan Club on Wednesday evening, Oct. 5, to Judge Parker. The occasion will be full of interest to the Democratic party. Its hopes are now in the ascendency, made so not only by the principles it advocates, but by the character of its leader, as the personality of the candidates is a factor of importance in this election. this election.

in this election.

The Democratic party at St. Louis, in the freedom of its action, took the presiding Judge of the highest court of the greatest State in the Union for its candidate, and selected in Judge Parker the ideal citizen for President. His self-poise and legal acumen are needed to meet the tendency of the times and the drift of the Republican party toward centralization, absolutism, extravagance and foreign dominion.

and the drift of the Republican party toward centralization, absolutism, extravagance and foreign dominion.

The founders of the republic fully appreciated the temptations which might lead the country into untrodden and dangerous paths, and they provided against this departure, by constitutional restrictions and limitations, which cannot be too carefully observed. If the Democratic party is again entrusted with the responsibility of government, it will administer it, as it has always done, not for selfish purposes and party grandeur, but for the glory of the country and the good of all its citizens.

I have always had a friendly regard for the Manhattan Club and its members. My name has been upon its rolls for a long time, it having pald me the compliment years ago of election to honorary membership. The club has exerted a wide influence in Democratic circles and rendered valuable service to the country and the party. Its roster is a list of most of the prominent Democrats of New York city and the country, and it honors itself in honoring Judge Parker. I hope to join with its members in rejoicing over the result of the election on the 8th of November and in the fact that New York and West Virginia contributed to make it a Democratic friumph. Very truly yours. ginia contributed to man, triumph. Very truly yours, H. G. Davis.

Other letters of regret were received from Judge Werner and Mr. Cunneen. Judge Parker drove to the club from the Hotel Seville. He and Justice Herrick arrived about the same time—8:30. The hall downstairs was packed then and way had to be made for them to reach the stairs. The reception committee was composed of President Charles H. Truax, Vice-President John Hone, William S. Rodie, chairman of the house committee Sylvester J. O'Sullivan, David H. Gilbert, John G. Carlisle, Charles W. Dayton, Justice Morgan

Carlisle, Charles W. Dayton, Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, James H. Parker, Perry Belmont and Harry Macdona.

As Judge Herrick and Judge Parker made their way up the crowded stairway there was no cheering, the formality of the affair rather precluding it. The famous dining room of the club on the third floor had been arranged with a platform at the easterly end. Over this hung the portraits of Judge Parker and Mr. Davis. There was no critait of Justice Herrick. The decorations were two large American flags.

Ropes had been drawn so that a gang-way was made about the room. The two candidates took their stand on the platform with Mr. Hone and Judge Truax. e parties of the second part to shake came in at the door opposite the plat-form, turned to the right and circled around the room against the sun.

ne room against the sun. Judge Parker caught each outstretched hand quickly with his right, put his left on the forearm of the shaker gently, if the proffered shake promised to be gentle, and more forcibly if necessary, and spoke a few words generally in the ear of each person, which seemed to tickle the recipient immensely

When Mr. Murphy came along the Judge spied him and had his hand out ahead of "You see, I'm in line as usual, Judge," said the Tammany Hall leader.

"Oh, no," replied the Judge, "you're usually right at the head of the line, Mr. Murphy."
That was a sample of the jokes that the Judge seemed to have for nine out of every ten men who came along. Judge Herrick was right on a par with him, and between the two of them they kept people moving along in the best of humor, despite the fleeting character of the handelasps.
When District Attorney Jerome came along Justice Herrick got hold of the District Attorney's hand and pumped and pumped on it.

pumped on it.

"Say, Jerome," he said, "we ought to make a good team."

Hitched together, do you mean, Judge?" said Mr. Jerome.

Justice Herrick said that that was just what he meant and asked Mr. Jerome to be sure and call on him this morning. It was whispered about the club that Justice Herrick was going to have a heart to heart ducing him to join in the Herrick stumping

Mayor McClellan and Mr. Grout came Mayor Mayor and seemed to be getting lots of enjoyment. To mention the names of the Democrats who shook the hands of the candidates would be to go over-the names of practically every well known Democrat of Manhattan, at any rate.

The handshaking began at 8:45 o'clock

The handshaking began at 8:45 o'clock, and lasted two hours. Tables were spread then and a light luncheon was served to those who remained. Judge Parker and Justice Herrick, with the reception committee had supper in a private dining room on the fourth floor. There were no speeches.

NEW CONSUL AT CANTON. Mr. Cheshire Takes the Place of Mr McWade, Dismissed.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Hong Kong, Oct. 5.-Consul-General Cheshire, formerly at Mukden, but later in temporary charge of the consulate at Nankin, has taken Consul-General McWade's place at Canton.

President Roosevelt ordered Consul-General Robert McWade dismissed from his post in September as the result of an investigation by Assistant Secretary of State Pierce into charges that Mr. McWade had been guilty of extortion and of issuing false certificates to Chinamen who wished to come to the United States.

$7,000 FOR WORKMAN'S DEATH. Paid by Mrs. Strafford of the Hotel Imperial to a Plasterer's Widow. Mrs. Jennie K. Strafford, lessee of the Hotel Imperial, has settled the $35,000 suit brought against her by Mrs. Catherine Owens, for the loss of her husband, James Owens, a plasterer, who was killed in a gas explosion on the ninth floor of the hotel annex on Sept. 29, last year. Jacob New-man, Mrs. Owens's lawyer, said yesterday that Mrs. Strafford had paid his client $7,000

The Martinique is right "next door" to theatres, churches, clubs, shops.

The Martinique gives you to eat what you want when you want—a la carte or table d'hote. The Martinique offers apartments of 2 and 3 rooms only-everything else is let.

The Martinique, 54-58 West 33d street.

LA FOLLETTE WINS IN COURT.

HIS TICKET ENTITLED TO THE NAME "REPUBLICAN."

Supreme Court Upholds the State Committee and Overrules the National Convention-S. A. Cook, Head of Stalwart Ticket, to Resign

Madison, Wis., Oct. 5.-By a vote of 3 to 1 the Supreme Court of Wisconsin to-day decided that Gov. Robert M. La Follette and his followers are entitled to be called "Republicans" on the official ballots of the State at the November election.

In accordance with his decision announced some time ago to withdraw if thedecision went against him. S. A. Cook. Stalwart candidate for Governor, is expected to resign to-morrow. He had a conference to-day with Senator Spooner, but said that he had not yet decided whether to withdraw, but it is known that he will and that ex-Gov. Edward Scofield will be appointed by the Stalwart State central committee to succeed him. The Stalwarts have decided to continue the campaign against La Follette with a third ticket. Justices Dodge, Winslow and Marshall supported the La Follette faction, Chief Justice Cassoday dissenting. Justice Siebecker, the fifth member of the court, who is La Follette's brother-in-law, refused to sit in the case. The action was brought in equity by adherents of S. A. Cook, the "Stalwart" nominee for Governor, and was to restrain Secretary of State Houser from certifying to the County Clerks the names of the La Follette candidates as the regular Republicans. In answering the suit, the Governor's followers contended that the proceedings the convention which renominated La Follette were regular, that the convention was the only body with power to name candidates and further that the court had no jurisdiction in the matter no jurisdiction in the matter

The opinion filed by Justice Marshall asserts the right of the court to consider a controversy "of so grave a character and of such public importance" and pro-

The opinion filed by Justice Marshall asserts the right of the court to consider a controversy "of so grave a character and of such public importance" and proceeds to base its decision on this section from the Wisconsin statutes:

When two more conventions or cauches and the mode of the work o it is the duty of the Secretary of State to act accordingly, certifying both sets of nominations to the various county clerks, but giving to those headed by Robert M. La Follette for Governor preference, as aforesaid.

The foregoing conclusion follows logically and necessarily from the legal aspects of the case before stated. What the real rights of the matter in dispute might be found to be, were this court permitted to disregard the decision of the special tribunal, and investigate and determine the merits of the controversy from that standpoint, it has no right to decide or suggest. Duly constituted authority having spoken within its jurisdiction, it must be conclusively presumed here to have spoken rightly.

PARKER SCARE FOR OHIO. Among the Prismatic Suggestions Made to the Candidate.

Judge Parker was urged yesterday to begin a lively campaign in Ohio. The urger was Col. John Connolly of Columbus, Ohio. The Colonel does not nurse the thought that the Judge can carry Ohio, but he has a strategic mind and has figured it out that if the Democrats begin to make a noise in Ohio such Republican orators as Foraker, Dick and Herrick will be called home from their work in doubtful States to defend their own political hearthstones. Col. Connolly wants John R. McLean to go right home and get busy. He saw Mr. McLean who promised to start in a week or so.

The Hon, James K. Jones, ex-chairman of the national committee, called on the candidate. He was just back from Washington, D. C. Mr. Jones still chases rainbows, but not with the spirit of yore. "Nevada and Montana are surely Democratic," he said. "Some of our managers are claiming Wyoming, Colorado, Washington and Idaho, but of these I am hopeful of Colorado only. I am told, however, that George W. Turner, our candidate for Governor, is likely to carry Washington, and that may help the national ticket."

Mr. Jones pooh-poohed the talk about a squabble between him and Senator Gorman.

Gorman.
"They even had a story that Senator Gorman and I quarrelled over a room," he said. "If Gorman had a room that I wanted I might throw him out, but we would not quarrel over it."

quarrel over it."
Congressman Van Duzer of Nevada was a cheering caller. "With hard work we will carry the State." he told Judge Parker. Mr. Van Duzer is going right home to make speeches every day. Incidental to Mr. Van Duzer's visit, it was rumored that Senator Newlands of Nevada had so impressed the national committee with the importance of getting the three electoral votes of the State that he was able to send $7.000 home to aid in the work. Senator Newlands is to aid in the work. Senator Newlands is rich himself.

Other visitors were Congressmen Burleeon, Burgess and Cooper of Texas; Charles A. Towne, a new nominee for Congress in New York; James W. Pryor of the City Club, who was in charge of personally conducted tours to Rosemount; William Campbell, chairman of the West Virginia Campbell, Committee: Frederic Conduction State Committee; Frederic Coudert and F. M. Patterson of the Parker College clubs; Congressman Bassett of Erooklyn, Con-gressman Underhill of Westchester, Conressman Grange Thomas Taggart. Granger of Rhode Island, and Yesterday morning Judge Parker went to the studio of A. Muller-Ury in Fifth avenue to sit for another portrait. At 6 o'clock last night he walked from the Hotel Seville to the Waidorf-Astoria there to dine with William F. Shechen. with William F. Sheehan.

WATSON ASKS PARKER TO QUIT AND LET ME GIVE ROOSEVELT A REAL FIGHT.

They're Both Bad Anyway, Tom Tells Fellow Dollar Diners and Either Could Swallow the Other's Platform-He's

the Human Brother to Right All Wrongs. Between 500 and 600 persons sat down last night to the dollar dinner given in the Palm Garden in East Fifty-eighth street in honor of the Hon. Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for the Presidency of the United States. Several hundred more were in the galleries, where they joined in the applause with Populistic ardor and enthusiasm. The official name of the dinner was "Labor Fanquet, in honor of Hon. Thomas E. Watson." It was under the auspices of some of the labor unions of the city and the committee in charge consisted of fifteen leading members of labor organizations. Like the the first Watson meeting of the campaign, a few weeks ago, it was remarked by a degree of spirit and enthusiasm rarely matched since the antipoverty meetings of the Henry George-

Dr. McGlynn campaign.

As in those memorable assemblages, a large proportion of the audience was made up of women. Apparently the ardor of the women in the cause of Populism is as keen as that of the men. They cheered and waved handkerchiefs at the speakers from the beginning of the oratory to the from the beginning of the oratory to the end, and especially when Mr. Watson him-self was introduced.

self was introduced.

The chairman was William A. Coakley, president of the Association of Lithographic Apprentices and Press Feeders. He started the oratory with a spirited speech in which the trusts had a pretty bad quarter of an hour and came out from under the oratorical walloping in that mussed-up tousled condition in which all good Populists like to see them. Mr. Watson himself did not appear at the chairman's table until the dinner was them. Mr. watson nimself did not appear at the chairman's table until the dinner was well advanced. His appearance was the signal for the first really overwhelming demonstration, while the band played "The Marseillaise" and "Dixie." Others at the chairman's table were A. Jr. Roulten, Populist condidate for Governo.

Others at the chairman's table were A. Jr.
Boulton, Populist candidate for Governo, of New York; Judge Sheldon of Connecticut George A. Hunneker, Populist candidate for Governor of New Jersey; J. W. Forrest, chairman of the Albany county Democracy; Judge Samuel Seabury and J. G.
Phelps Stokes, a new recruit to Mr. Wat-

The chairman introduced Mr. Watson as the new Jefferson of the South." That started an uproar of cheering which it seemed would never come to an end.

The sentiment in Mr. Watson's speech which seemed to catch the crowd most was that Parker was a Sunday school was that Parker was a Sunday school fighter, and that if he would only get out of the way and let him, Watson, have a clear field, he would guarantee to give Roosevelt a stiff fight. Among other things Mr. Watson also said:

things Mr. Watson also said:

Where is the greater part of all this wonderful production of wealth which has taken place here for the last 100 years? Who has tot it? Not the men whose toil created it. No. Almost entirely it is in the hands of men who never created one dollar of it. Almost entirely it is in the hands of men who never in all their lives did an honest day's work. How did they get it? Mainly by operation of laws which violate every principle of common sense, common justice, com-

"Two minds with but a single thought."
Two hearts that beat as one." Two hearts that best as one."

The party which I have the honor to represent in this campaign is the only one which stands for Jeffersonian principles; is the only one which wages war upon the principles of the Republican party; is the only one which plainly, distinctly and positively tells the people wherein it differs in essential principles from the party of Roosevelt. It has not founded itself upon any temporary issue, any trivial grievance. It has linked its fortunes with the eternal principles of human brotherhood and undying purpose on the part of the people that liberty and equality shall not forever be trodden underfoot.

ot. No defeats can discourage us. No ridicule No defeats can discourage us. No ridicule or abuse or misrepresentation can daunt us. From the passion and the prejudice of to-day we appeal to the sober, second thought of to-morrow. Looking neither to the right nor the left, we go marching on, proud to do battle for the sacred principles of popular self-government. Talk to me of reward? What more do I need than that of having unfurled the standard of Jeffersonian Demoracy in its darkest hour, when those who had promised to die for it had deserted? It is an honor to champion a great cause, no matter how heavy the task may be. There is glory in defending the right, no matter how goes the tide of success. There is inspiration in working for the plain peeple when they cheer you on as they are cheering me.

Besides Mr. Watson the speakers were Joseph Buchanan, who talked on "The Wasted Vote;" Dr. John H. Girdner, "Equal wasted vote; Dr. John H. Girdner, "Equal Rights to All and Special Privilege to None;" J. G. Phelps Stokes, "Jeffersonian Principles," and Alfred J. Boulton, "Labor and Politics."

The Seasoers.

Aboard the White Star liner Baltic, which sailed vesterday for Queenstown and Liverpool, were:

pool, were:

John E. Redmond, M. P.: the Earl and Countess of Yarmouth, Capt. A. E. Wilson,
the Hon. W. W. Vivian, Prof. W. R. Sorley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McKay, the Rev.
and Mrs. Arthur Mount, Dr. Hugh Robert Mill, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton MacLean,
Thomas Lough, M. P.; Mr. and Mrs. George
Langford, Vincent Kennedy, M. P.; Jeremiah Jordan, M. P.; Capt. Donelan, M. P.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dewey, Col. R. E. Crompton, Lieut, Arthur Burney, R. A.; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton
Carhart and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Douglas.
Voyagers by the North German Lloyd Voyagers by the North German Lloyd teamship Friedrich der Grosse, off to-day eamship Fileshed.

or Bremen:

Mrs. Irving H. Brown, D. B. von Lichtenels; Mr. and Mrs. John T. Morgan, Mrs.
stephen J. Young, Mrs. George F. Stetson, or. and Mrs. Eugene L. Reed, Mrs. Morton bexter, Mrs. Franklyn Gaylord and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meyer.

Mrs. Albert Meyer. Sailing by the French liner La Savoie, off to-day for Havre, are: Baron G. de Grandmaison, Capt. Ferrie of the French Army, the Countess Benoist d'Azy, the Marquis Carlo Compans, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Knapp, Walter T. Reed, the Count de Verdonnet and Mrs. Duncan C. Scott.

British Steel Magnates Coming Here. The British Iron and Steel Institute, one of the most important commercial and scientific bodies in England, is coming to this country to study our methods. Its members will leave Liverpool on Oct. 14 on the Celtic, and after a few days in this city will visit Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburg, Cincinnait, Cleveland and Buffalo, paying a return visit here before their departure yard, Norfolk.

Lleutenant-Commander W. H. Allen, from Naval War College, to day as inspector of Pittenth Lighthouse district, St. Louis.

Lieutenant-Commander W. H. Allen, from Naval War College, to day as inspector of Pittenth Lighthouse district, St. Louis.

Lieutenant-Commander W. H. Allen, from Naval War College, to day as in this city will be a complete the commander with the same of the commander with the commander with the commander with the command with the command with the commander with the command wit

THE more you know about Hat quality and Hat style the better you'll like a

YOUMANS HAT

536 Fifth Ave. (near 44th St.). 1107 Broadway (Madison Square West). 158 Broadway (near Liberty St.).

HOW JAPAN'S ARMY IS DIVIDED

582 GUNS HAMMERING AWAY AT

PORT ARTHUR. Four Divisions of Troops There-Ovama's Force Operating Against Kuropatkin Estimated at About 150,000, With 648 Guns-Port Arthur Garrison Praised.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BERLIN, Oct. 5 .- According to the Mukden correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger, the present disposition of the Japanese forces is as follows: Gen. Nogi is at Port Arthur with the first, eighth, ninth and eleventh divisions, with the reserves, and 132 field guns and 450 siege guns. Gen. Kuroki has with him the Guards and the second and twelfth divisions, representing a force of 60,800 infantry, 2,160 cavalry and 278 guns. Gen. Oku's force consists of the third, fourth and sixth divisions and reserves. which represent 48,000 infantry, 3,120 cayalry and 252 guns. Gen. Nodzu has the fifth and tenth divisions and reserves, which gives him 25,600 infantry, 1,800 cavalry and 84 guns. The position of the seventh division is not

Field Marshal Oyama's whole force is estimated at 144,000 infantry, 6,500 cavalry and 648 guns. Of these 33,000 infantry and 84 guns form the left wing of the Japanese army on the Liao and Hun rivers and the railway, 36,000 infantry and 84 guns are at Liaovang and Yentai and 10,000 infantry and 18 guns, the right wing, are north of JAPS CAPTURE TWO REDOUBTS. That Much Success Admitted in the Russian Report.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. St. Petersburg, Oct. 5.-Telegraphing under date of Sept. 30, Gen. Stoessel, the commandant at Port Arthur, says: "After bloody assaults from Sept. 19 to Sept. 23 there has been comparative tranquillity around the fortress. On the night of Sept. 23 the Japanese, after being repulsed, fled in panic. They are now working very actively and are making approaches to the fortress by a tunnel and by intrenchments. The bombardment was maintained upon the forts and buildings in the town. We make sorties frequently. driving back the enemy.

The repulse of the last attack was especially due to Gen. Kondratenko, Col. Irman, Capt. Sychaff and Lieut. Poggersky. The troops manifest heroic spirit. Wounded men are daily returning to the ranks from the hospitals. We pray to God for victory, and for the health of your Majesty."

In the course of his report Gen. Stoesse states that between Sept. 19 and Sept. 23 the Japanese captured two redoubts near the aqueduct, but all their other assaults were repulsed. He adds that when the Russians evacuated the redoubts they were practically destroyed. 10,000 CHINESE ENGAGED. Bandits in the War Area Encouraged by

Both Sides. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Oct. 6.-The Telegraph's correspondent at Sinminting save teat, accompanied by Capt. Charles T. Boyd, of the Tenth United States Cavalry, he visited the chief of the Chunchuses, or Manchurian bandits, who declared that only 10,000 Chunchuses were actively engaged in the theatre of war. Those along the Liao

River were commanded by a Japanese officer. The correspondent learned that the Russian bullion which was sent some time ago to Mukden for safety was captured ov robbers. The magistrate at Simminting says it would be immensely difficult to suppress the robb ers, because both the Japanese and Russians encourage and employ them. CHINESE JUNKS BURNED. Japanese Report of the Hun River Activity. WASH INGTON, Oct. 5 .- This official telegram, dated Tokio, Oct. 4, was received by the Japanese Legation to-day:

"On Sept. 30 a detachment of Russian cavalry, about fifty in number, was found engaged in burning some native junks on the Hun River, and it was stopped by the firing of the Japanese troops on both banks of the river. The report emanating from the Russian sources that seventeen junks laden with Japanese ammunition were burned is entirely false. Such report is probably given out as an excuse for wanton destruction by the Russians of the native junks to keep them from falling into the hands of the Japanese."

M'GUIRE'S LAST DITCH.

Tried to Wrest Control of Democratic County Convention From Dunfee, but Failed. SYRACUSE, Oct. 5.-With the Democratic county convention to-day came an expected fight between former State Comaxpected ight between former state Committeeman John Dunfee and former Mayor James K. McGuire for control. Mr. McGuire made a last desperate effort to secure a title to some of the patronage here, but failed

All was peace in the Democratic ranks until Mr. McGuire returned to the city last Sunday night and at once began trying to get the delegates away from Mr. Dunfee. He offered as high as $150 a delegate, but did not succeed. Mr. Dunfee stood ready to spend any amount to keep his man, John J. Cummins, chairman of the county committee, and the recognized les ontrol, but he did not have to spend any-The test of strength came this afternoon when a viva voce vote was taken for the temporary chairman. McGuire's candi-date, Mathew Woods, got 63 votes, while Charles A. Richardson, Dunfee's Charles A. Richardson was nominated for

State Senator and Alexander D. Jenney

for District Attorney. Army and Navy Orders. Washington, Oct. 5.—The following army orders were issued to-day:
Lieut.-Col. Luigi Lomia, Artillery Corps, from treatment at General Hospital, Hot Springs, to his proper station.

These navy orders were issued to-day Commander N. Sargent, detached as member of general Board, Washington, to command the Baltimore. Lieutenant-Commander J. T. Smith, to navy yard, Norfolk.

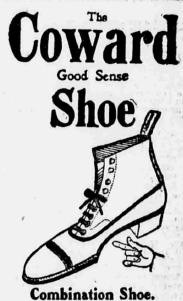

Shoes for Men

Three-fifty

Uncouthness and a lack of character condemn the average shoes. They owe it to the mechanical means employed in fashioning them. Our three-fifty shoe is for the most part hand wrought - wrought with head and hands to insure good service, infinite style and a full measure of comfort. The lasts? They are faithful copies of the best five-dollar shoes which the market affords. We present the new extreme models for the young fellows, and the broad-toe lasts for the mature man, in button, lace or blucher styles of patent leather, wax calf or box calf with full extension double or medium soles and Cuban or regular heels.

Saks & Company

Broadway, 33d to 34th Street.

For the foot in need of support at the arch, the Coward Combination Shoe has no equal. Being two widths narrower than the regular size at instep and heel, it answers its purpose as no other shoe has ever done.

POR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN. SOLD NOWHERE BLSE.

JAMES S. COWARD, 268-274 Greenwich St., near Warren St., N.Y. Mail Orders Filled.

THE MANHATTAN STORAGE AND WAREHOUSE COMPANY

"Indestructible" Fire and Burglar Proof.
Warehouses | Lexington Ave., 41st and 42d Sta.
and Offices, | 7th Ave., 52d and 53d Sts. and Offices. 17th Ave. 52d and 53d Sts.
Superior advantages and unexcelled security for storage of Furniture, Merchandles and Valuables.
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES. 85 PER YEAR, VAULTS
Furniture, Ornaments, etc., carefully packed.
Van service by skilled workmen.
Illustrated descriptive pamphlet sent on application.

Inspection of buildings invited.

ADRIAN ISELIN, JR., LAWRENCE WELLS,
Sec'y and Treas. Prest.

Everybody Gets It

BRENNER IS HOPEFUL. Odellism Won't Hurt Roosevelt and Fairbanks in Brooklyn.

Chairman Jacob Brenner of the Republican campaign committee in Brooklyn regards the outlook for the national ticket in that borough as most encouraging and confidently expects to find the vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks as large as for McKinley and Roosevelt four years ago. He is looking for effective results from the organization of the numerous Roosevelt and Fairbanks campaign clubs among the Hebrew, Italian, Swedish and Polish voters, Mr. Brenner and his associate managers are all keeping mum over the prospects of the grocery ticket, but it is an open secret that they realize that it is destined to get a lambasting.

Every County in Washington for Boosevelt. Former Senator John L. Wilson of Washington, who was in this city yesterday, said that Roosevelt would carry every county in that State and that there would be a majority for the national ticket of not less than 30,000.

When you need a "wee little drop" of PURE whiskey medicinally order the John Jameson Irish Whiskey And rest assured that you are getting the Purest and most holesome spirits the world ever saw.

Keep a bottle at home